About InspiredMinds

Inspired Minds is an Initiative which is in search of passionates in the field of technology through Educational Institutions. We help those students to showcase their creativity with our assistance. We are in the hunt of those stars which are covered in their own universes. Joining Inspired Minds is easy and being here is flexible. We welcome to get the taste of it which is always the best. Get to know about our program from any of our partners around and get ready to register and fly-in to our club. We research the X-factor in students which always has been hidden inside them. If they are starting from scratch we will set the path of interest. Neither students will be blindfolded nor covered from their talents.

A Note

We will not compete, we are here to tell the world that we are the only company who respect and preserve humanity but not the money

We are always in the search of needy people who are worthy to learn technology & places where technology needs to be taken care of. We witness the growth of a child in their own intrested field. Our Volunteers & Student Partners will insist people to be updated with the world & connect with weekly programs & events in concerned aminities.

We also have a graduation program based on the passion levels of individuals from the class 1 to till they complete their studies. We provide a complete skill set activities for individual growth. This will be a new way of education in which we are taking an assistance from education centers by being partners & providing them an opportunity to build minds instead of products.

It's never too late

4 Prespectives

The Official Members

In this program we have divided the sections of maintainence & workflows among the members.

To make InspiredMinds successfull we are considering four aspects which includes whole of human resources from a student to the faculty along with the management of an institution who supports the growth of individuals & help us to get the future leaders in the form of student partners. As our network grows we keep on concentrating every individual who needs an assistance. InspiredMinds will always be their for who needs help. Co-ordinators & Student partners will play a role in maintaining the workflows of the program as they get trained & paid for their works. They also get the opportunity to share their ideas & the platforms to showcase their leadership qualities. Ocassional meetings will be held to maintain a good relationship among Co-ordinators & Student partners.

How we make Education a Newborn

We support talents in the fields they are intrested in or else we help them to know about their real talents

Basically our mision is to make the students aware about current techonology & then making them to pursue their passion rather than giving up. Other than that we help them to learn the real life by collaborating urban & rural minds through our foundational activities.

We let them to elect their co-ordinators & lead their teams that can crack the code of impossibility. This program helps everyone to unlock the secrets of their life.

Office Access

24*7 service

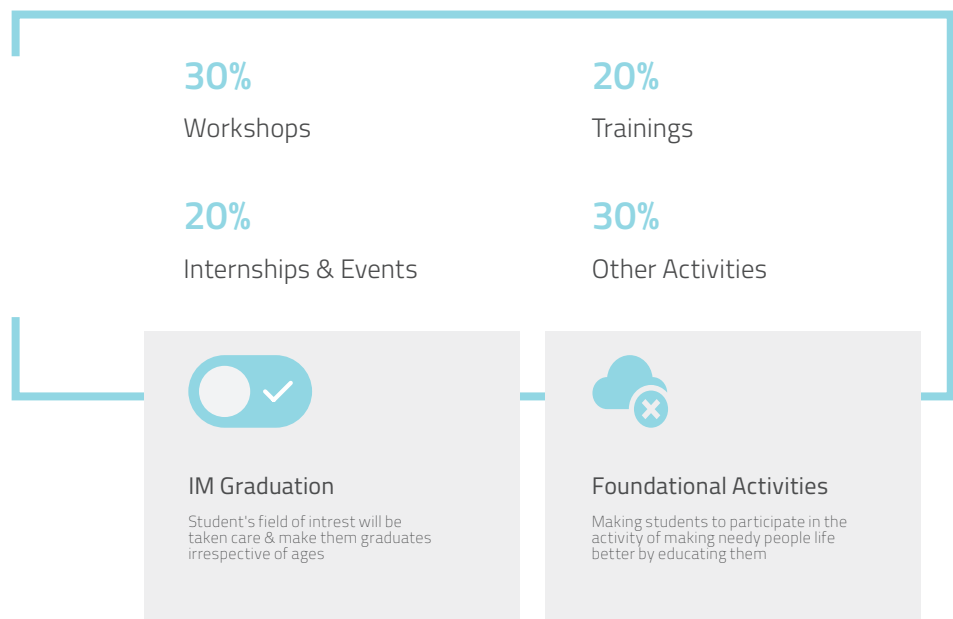

We offer anytime access to our official partners to work on their dreams with our live assistance

Introduce to Process Flow

We commit with the institutions by being official partners through exchanging mutual informations & agreeing for the terms

IM Graduation starts right after the enrollment of students followed by the selection of Co-ordinators & Student partners. For assigning the levels of students we conduct an event where our team will take care of the process. We provide merchandise to every student according to the groups. We do workshops on different categories to tell them about the basics then we will arrange for a student counseling to realise about their real interest. Knowing their interest we keep on training them through necessary materials & let them to get the internships to perfect their skill levels. In every stage of their development we will upgrade their levels by marking with rewards & certifications. Getting educated is not only a major part of IM Degree, connecting with the people of different mindset & learning to interact with them serves the major part. Depending on all the aspects of their life students will earn IM Degree. This process can extend until a student reaches his/her goal. Every year they spent in IM Graduation Program will be considered as a lightyear.
